

I'd like to officially protest the proposed Broadcast Flag for digital television.

All I can see it doing is hindering ordinary people like myself and my family who aren't intending to break any laws, and temporarily delaying those who actually intend to pirate the content.

Please, act in the best interest of the people, not in the interests of large corporations.

Sincerely,
Brad Fitzpatrick